Data Protection & Privacy Rights

Last Updated: March 8, 2026

1. INTRODUCTION

This Privacy Policy outlines the rigorous standards by which we manage personal information. As a professional institution, confidentiality is the cornerstone of our practice. We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of our website visitors and clients in accordance with global data protection standards, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), and other applicable legislation.

This website operates under a "Privacy First" philosophy emphasizing minimal data collection and maximum transparency. This document informs you of the types of information we may collect, the legal basis for processing, and the strict limitations of its use.

2. INFORMATION COLLECTION & ORIGIN

We categorize collected information into two distinct classifications:

A. Voluntarily Provided Data

Information you explicitly submit through our secure contact forms, including legal names, professional affiliations, contact information (email/phone), and preliminary case summaries provided for seeking legal counsel.

B. Technical Telemetry

Automated server logs capturing data such as IP addresses, device types, and browser versions, used solely for network security, DDoS prevention, and optimal service delivery.

3. COOKIE & TRACKING DISCLOSURE

We operate a "Zero-Tracker" environment. We do not employ non-essential tracking cookies, advertising pixels, or third-party behavioral monitoring scripts. Your digital footprint remains localized to your session and is never sold to or shared with data brokers, marketers, or advertisers.

4. ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP DISCLAIMER

IMPORTANT: Submission of data through this portal is for preliminary inquiry only. No attorney-client privilege or relationship is formed through the use of this website or the transmission of data via web forms. An official relationship is only established once a formal, written Letter of Engagement is executed by an authorized partner of the firm. Refrain from submitting highly sensitive or privileged evidentiary material until such a relationship is confirmed in writing.

5. SECURITY & ENCRYPTION PROTOCOLS

We implement industry-leading technical and organizational measures to protect your data:

Encryption	All information transmitted via our forms is encrypted using Transport Layer Security (TLS 1.3)
Data At Rest	Stored on encrypted, SOC2-compliant servers with restricted physical access
Access Control	Only authorized staff with need-to-know basis access inquiry data
Audit Trails	All internal access is logged and monitored for unauthorized activity
Vulnerability Testing	Regular security assessments and penetration testing performed by third-party auditors

6. DATA RETENTION & ERASURE RIGHTS

We do not retain personal information longer than necessary for collection purposes. Preliminary inquiries not leading to formal engagement are purged from active systems after 12 months, unless statutory obligations or professional insurance requirements mandate longer retention.

7. YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS & ACCESS

Regardless of jurisdiction, you have the right to control your personal data. Under applicable laws (GDPR, CCPA, etc.), you may exercise:

Right to Access	Obtain a copy of all personal data we hold about you
Right to Rectification	Correct inaccurate or incomplete information
Right to Erasure	Request deletion of your personal data (Right to be Forgotten)
Data Portability	Receive your data in a structured, machine-readable format
Right to Restrict Processing	Limit how we use your information
Right to Withdraw Consent	Revoke processing permission where consent was the basis

8. THIRD-PARTY DATA SHARING & RESTRICTIONS

We do not sell, trade, or share your personal information with third parties for commercial purposes. Data may only be disclosed when required by law, necessary to prevent fraud or security breaches, to service providers under strict confidentiality agreements, or with your explicit, informed consent.
